DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

Respondent has filed a motion asking that this court take judicial notice of five affidavits of judgment filed in the district court after the docketing of this appeal. Appellant has filed a response to the motion, but does not specifically oppose it, and respondent has filed a reply. This court is not convinced that judicial notice of the affidavits is appropriate. Accordingly, the motion is denied. This court will disregard any reference to the affidavits of judgment within the parties' briefs.

It is so ORDERED.
